PROCLAMATION.—THE GOVERNOR OF THIS STATE, having, in accordance with a time honomed custom, appointed Thursday, the 28th day of November inst, as a day of public thanksgiving, I, Fernando Wood, Mayor of the city of New York, do hereby recommend all good citizens to unite on the day thus set apart in ascriptions of praise to the source of all good for his manifold mercies and blessings. Admidst the evils which the folly and wickedness of man have produced, the unchanging goodness of the Creator may well awake our devout wonder. No language can adequately express the extent of His love, but your honored pastors, instructed by the sublime teaching of revelation, will best guide your grateful devotions. I am sure that decorum and rational enjoyment will mark this religious festival as ever in the city of New York, and I feel it only necessary to remind those blessed with abundance to remember at this inciment season and period of general distress the poor, the fatheriess and the widow. Perhaps the Ruler of the universe, thus entreated by the voice of mercy, may remove from our beloved country the scourge of war.
